

Active Threat Response Training

This is a free training seminar provided by the Holland Police Department and is based on ALICE Training Institute recommendations.

The purpose of this training is to prepare your organization to respond to the threat of an aggressive intruder, an active shooter event and other violent behavior by utilizing proactive response options.

Date: Wednesday, April 18th, 2018

Time: 1:00 PM

Location: Holland Community Center

Address: 40 Brimfield Rd Holland, MA 01521

Registration: Attendees must be pre registered no later than Monday, April 16th, 2018 by contacting Brenda Palmer by phone at (413) 245-3163 or by email hollandcommunitycenter@gmail.com

Attire: Please be advised that this training involves optional scenario based exercises which we highly recommend that all attendees participate in. Therefore, the dress code should consist of no shorts, dresses, or skirts and no open toe shoes, flip flops, sandals or heels. This is recommended for both participants and observers of the scenario training.

ALICE Training Institute's trademarks are owned by the ALICE Training Institute, LLC and its affiliates in the United States and other countries.